increments spike their blood where a mass of mud cucumbers cut to fit their eyes and so no one would know how tired they've grown of talking and telling their lies while your TVs change stations scroll messages victims and Christians both drinking blood and they pray for the destruction of all hatred more often just those with hate for us cause it hurts when you discover one's worse and one's better to suffer or cause others to and you can live by your conscience now guilt is a concept you're no longer subscribing to there's a virgin in my bed and she's taking off her dress and I'm not sure what i am gonna do there's a song stuck in my head and i can't help singing it oh how i hope my singing pleases you cause i am not who i become but what you made me into oh we got no health insurance no cellular service no disease they can cure but we need more money to burn so each person must learn the dollar amount they are worth and your pills make me dizzy forgetting my body i watch as it walks away and i just keep drinking the poison and smoking the cartons a pack and a half a day so when time comes to claim me my friends and my family will gather around my grave and they'll believe that they knew me and love me and miss me and all call me by my name so imagine what you want and then hold on to that thought cause that's as close as it will ever come and believe you're where you are and keep acting out the part but at the end of the end of the day the trees all get wheeled away and you'll be standing alone in a blank blank space
