All my friends they say I'm crazy for loving you
You're driving me to drink myself drunk before noon
You say you're coming back so I'll wait for a blue moon

I open the door
Watch your ghost appear once more
You tell me lies
I just nod with a smile
And I raise my glass
To your health
Love of my life
You treat me so well
Oh so well...

The nights are longer than the days
That is for sure
So drunk on cough syrup
It tastes like a fancy liqueur
Oh you say that you're coming back

So I composed an overture

I open the door
Watch your ghost appear once more
You tell me lies
I just nod with a smile
And I raise my glass
To your health
Love of my life
You treat me so well
Oh so well...

I open the door
Watch your ghost appear once more
You tell me lies
I just nod with a smile
And I raise my glass
To your health
Love of my life
You treat me so well
Oh so well...
