Alone with myself

My heart's in a box

On the topshelf safe

Where nobody knows

The tables have turned

No blackwaters deep

To dive in head first

Where nobody goes

And I daydream at night

Now that you're not here

You said goodbye

Without going anywhere

I always want what I cannot have

Love makes you happy and sad

Love makes you happy and sad

The curtain has closed

Tell me now where did our love go?

Nobody knows

And I daydream at night

Now that you're not here

You said goodbye

Without going anywhere

I always want what I cannot have

Love makes you happy and sad

Love makes you happy and sad

And I daydream at night

Now that you're not here

You said goodbye

Without going anywhere

I always want what I cannot have

Love makes you happy and sad

Love makes you happy and sad
