I'm tired I'm wired
I'm walking through the fire
It's so hard to see
When your are blinding me

You say you love me
Then you leave me
Inside I'm slowly dying
Got to break free if it kills me
I don't wanna be your

Daisy Chain around your neck
You love me once and then you forget
You take my heart with every beat
Over and over

I'm tired I'm wired
I'm running through the fire
It's so hard to see
When your are choking me

Daisy Chain around your neck
You love me once and then you forget
You take my heart with every beat

Over and over

I'm tired I'm wired
I'm running from the fire
It's so hard to leave
When your are chasing me

You say you love me
Then you leave me
Inside I'm slowly dying
Got to break free if it kills me
I don't wanna be your

Daisy Chain around your neck
You love me once and then you forget
You take my heart with every beat
Over and over
