(verse 1)

If you'd try to understand the reason for my dissention a careless word a slight of hand
a paranoid apprehension

(pre-chorus 1)

Could it be, that you're feeling all alone?
as you sit on your self-appointed throne and your fans, with their hands up in the air smile at you

(chorus)

nevermind, wait just a minute nevermind, only for a moment nevermind, what was I going to say?
nevermind, if only for a moment nevermind, I just forgot what to say

(verse 2)

If you'd try to realize the difference between us when I choose to draw the line well, will that be the instant?

(pre-chorus 2)

Cause it seems, that you're feeling all alone
smile at you
