"To You"

It's started with a dream
That one day
This day would come
You let me sing the melodies
And all the words in every song
You're the one with reason
I have come this far
So tonight I like to shine for u
And be your brightest star

To you I give my all
My life my heart my soul
To you I sing
The song in my dreams for the love that you have given me
I went there
To guide my all

There were times when I was feeling so alone
And u were the only one
Who made me strong
So for each and every time u bring me back again
Tonight I'll sing that song the love that can't go wrong

To you I give my all
My life my heart my soul
To you I sing
The song in my dreams for the love that you have
given me
I went there

Give back to you I give my all
My life my heart my soul
To you I sing
The song in my dreams for the love that you have
given me
The beautiful things that u made me see
For makin' me believe in me
I went there

I went there
Give back my all

To you...
