[Chorus 1:]

I've been right, I've been wrong
I've been weak, I've been strong
I think it's time I thought about moving on

oh, baby, can't you see?
I've been in love too long.
Yeahhhhhh

This time tomorrow, I'll be getting on a plane
I'll be flying free again
Can't let no sorrow be getting in my way, no baby
You almost got to me, yeahhh
But there's too much of the world to see
You will find someone else, but I can't fool myself

[Chorus 2:]

I've been right, I've been wrong
I've been weak, I've been strong
I think it's time I thought about moving on
Oh, baby, can't you see?
I've been in love too long
I've been smart, been a fool
Played the game by the rules
When you wake up in the morning, hey I'll be gone
Ain't nothing that you done no no, just been in love too long

We had our moments, but the time is ticking by Gotta get back to my life
That wind keeps blowing, I'm gonna spread my wings over everything
I've had some times with you, yeahh, but it's too long overdue
Sweet baby, sleep tonight, cause I can't live a lie

[Chorus 2]

Ain't nothing personal, lover
Ain't got no eyes for another
My heart just cannot be smothered

Don't you know, I gotta get up and go, get up and go, heyyy
Doo doo doo doo doo, mmm

I've been smart, been a fool
Played the game by the rules
When you wake up in the morning, hey I'll be gone
Ain't nothing that you done, I've been in love too long Ain't nothing that you done, no no
I've been in love too long
