

Gretchen Wilson "What Happened"

Visit "What Happened" on MotoLyrics.com

In a sandalwood frame
We bout in New Mexico
I was wearin' the chain that old Indian made
That we practically stole

Little shells in a jar
We found in Hanalei Bay
Got those matching tattoos and those ten dollar shoes
To remember our stay

If it hadn't been so good, I wouldn't feel so sad
If we hadn't been so happy, baby
It wouldn't hurt this bad
If you had told me this last summer
I'd be on the floor laughin'
Instead of standin' round breakin' down
Wonderin' what happened

What am I suppose to do?
Without my very best friend
Boy, you left me in shock and tied up in knots
Then it hits me again, yeah

If it hadn't been so good, I wouldn't feel so sad
If we hadn't been so happy, baby
It wouldn't hurt this bad
If you had told me this last summer
I'd be on the floor laughin'
Instead of standin' round breakin' down
Wonderin' what happened

If you had told me this last summer
I'd be on the floor laughin'
Instead of standin' round breakin' down
Wonderin' what happened

Visit Gretchen Wilson page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.