Melted candles on the window sill
Perfume in the haze
Ashtrays spread across the floor
On a normal day

We lay out across the bed
Just like we always did
And in this house
The devil laid his hand on our head
and made them spin

(Chorus)
I want to be your man
If you think I cared
I want to be your man
Your man, lord

No more defenses
Like no more peace of mind
Keeping in these knives stabbing
Spilling out your blood to me

(Chorus)

(Chorus)
