watching the minute hand frozen solid not moving still we believe we can but we're afraid of losing watching from over here its hardly worth competing im almost out of here while breaking a heart thats beating just as i start giving up im not backing up

[Chorus]

run into the light
get out of your own way
not afraid to fight
believe in what you say i'll hold on till the night
hanging by a thread
i'm not scared to let go thoughts inside your head that creep up to get you i believe this is right so i'll hold on til the night

[Verse 2]

i climbed up on a tree to get a new perspective if love is worth the time the price is being rejected just as i start falling down i turned this around

[Bridge]

hold on til im with you all i've got to give you all my fears are slowly fading to never know yes i start running running running running!!

[Chorus]

(believe that this is the night)
