I started to cry as the doctor told me
She was going to leave us tonight
So I stifled my tears now and went to her room
To my suprise she had a twinkle in her eyes
She said
I know that i am leaving you behind
But don't worry
I'll be fine
I'll be behind the blue skies
Among those beautiful stars

(CHORUS)

Cause in the sky
Oh so high
There are beautiful stars
which shine the night
She'll be dancing in the clouds
And she'll be singing in the rain
Among those beautiful stars x2

She held her hand out as she went
She took her last breath
And the tears started flowing out again
And i went to the window
And i opened it
There she was she was shining the sky
Among those beautiful stars

(CHORUS)

Cause in the sky
Oh so high
There are beautiful stars which shine the night

She'll be dancing in the clouds
And she'll be singing in the rain
Among those beautiful stars

Way up in the skies
There are beautiful stars in the light
She'll be dancing in the clouds
And she'll be singing in the rain
Among those beautiful stars

Five years have past
The cancer was spreading
I wouldn't last
So I took my last breath

I was in the sky
Oh so high
With those beautiful stars that shine the night
I was dancing in the clouds
And i was singing in the rain
And i saw a beautiful face

And we were in the sky
Oh so high
With those beautiful stars that shine the night
We were dancing in the clouds
And we were singing in the rain
Among those beautiful stars

We were dancing in the clouds
And we were singing in the rain
Among those beautiful stars
