Where to we begin? It all fell apart.
I feel it again, but not like this before.
I was wanting it bad, thought I was ready.
But now I'm wanting it more, yea, now I'm wanting it more.

Stop me if I make a fool of myself
I was just trying to be cool
And stop trying to figure it out
And spend on day in my shoes

When are you gonna learn?
You're out of control.
Think you're gonna burn but you're gonna fade
I should have told you when I still had the chance
I should have gone out of the way.
I should have begged you to stay.

Stop me if I make a fool of myself.
I was just trying to be cool.
Stop trying to figure me out and spend one day in my shoes.

When are you coming home?
Don't wander too if you get in the zone it could all go wrong.
Hope you're not looking for a challenge
I'm already yours.
In my arms is where you belong.
Back at home is where you belong.

Stop me if I make a fool of myself
I was just trying to be cool
Stop trying to figure me out
And spend one damned day in my shoes.
Spend one damn day in my shoes.
