I don't know why I keep coming here
We do the same thing every time
I admit, I kind of like it that way
I wouldn't worry 'bout it, it's alright

I don't know why
It would be one thing when it's not
How could it be one thing?

I'm not selling lies
I am on a last chance, baby, one shot
We only go around the world one time
And if I wanted to I could do anything
Yeah, if I wanted to I could do

But I, I thought we were fine
I thought you were mine
You caught me with my guard down
You took me by surprise

Hang around out of convenience
And sooner or later, you'll be on your way
I don't why it would be one thing when it's not
How could it be one thing?

I'm not selling short
I am on a last chance, baby, one shot
We only go around the world one time
And if I wanted to I could do anything
How could it be one thing to keep us apart?

I, I thought we were fine
I thought you were mine
You caught me with my guard down
You took me by surprise
Were we doing time?
There's no need to lie

About something
That's really going on in your heart
I don't know why it would be one thing when it's not
How could it be one thing?

I don't know why it would be one thing when it's not
How could it be one thing to keep us apart?

I thought we were fine
Were you doing time?
You caught me with my guard down
You took me by surprise
There's no need to lie

I thought we were fine
Although there's something
That's really going on in your heart
