Dressing my voice up on the phone
Underneath the envy rotting my bones
I'd do anything to get you alone, if just for awhile

Blame it on the way that I talk
You can blame it on the way that I look
You can blame it on the stuff that I drank
And the pills that I took

Tell me a lie, if it's true
Have you done all the things I never wanted you to?

Baby is he all that you dreamed?
I think about you every night when I go to sleep
You're laying there wrapped up in his arms
How we used to be

And are you seriously falling in love?
Or do you do it just to get back at me?
I deserve to take it I guess, I just wish we could be

Tell me a lie, if it's true
Have you done all the things I never wanted to do?

I know you hate it when I play you my songs
There ain't a one of 'em when you weren't involved
I bet you wish I'd take the issue at hand and just get it solved

Trippin' myself up on my words
Writin' checks that I couldn't cash
I rip 'em up and throw 'em away
Dig 'em out of the trash

You won't believe me if I promise again
Tellin' you that I can change
I'd scream it at the top of my lungs
But it's out of my range

Tell me a lie if it's true
Have you done all the things I never wanted you to?
Tell me a lie, it's true

Have you done all the things I never wanted you to?
