Hey you, it's good to see you again.
You're looking good as usual, but you are just a friend.
Still you, always seem to pretend
We are going for a drink, but that is how it begins.
This time, this time might be the last
Who is it we're kidding now, this time might be the best!
That's when she said...

Just one more time
Come play with me spend the night
I know it's Shameless, we're nameless.
Just one more night
Come lay with me, turn off the lights
I know it's Shameless, we're nameless.

Hey you, I see you still are a friend
It's nothing too unusual, but this is where it begins
Still you you make a mess out of him
Knowingly he shrugs it off and I feel sorry for him
This time, this time could be the last
It can't go on forever girl, but I want you so damn bad!

Just one more time
Come play with me and spend the night
I know it's Shameless, we're nameless.
Just one more night
Come lay with me, turn off the lights
I know it's Shameless, we're nameless.

I feel the same I want to play those games again
I want to play those games again

Hell I know it's shameless, we are nameless

Just one more time
Come play with Spend the night
I know it's Shameless, we're nameless.
Just one more night
Come lay with me, turn off the lights
I know it's Shameless, we're nameless
We are nameless.
