I am a backseat driver from America
They drive to the left on Falls Road
The man at the wheel's name is Seamus
We pass a child on the corner he knows
And Seamus says, Now, what chance has that kid got?
And I say from the back, I don't know.
He says, There's barbed wire at all of these exits . . .
And there ain't no place in Belfast for that kid to go.

(chorus)
It's a hard life
It's a hard life
It's a very hard life
It's a hard life wherever you go
If we poison our children with hatred then, the hard life is all that they'll know
And there ain't no place in (Belfast) for these kids to go (Chicago)
(This world)

A cafeteria line in Chicago
The fat man in front of me
Is calling black people trash to his children he's the only trash here I see
And I'm thinking this man wears a white hood in the night when his children should sleep
But, they slip to their window and they see him
And they think that white hood's all they need

(repeat chorus)

I was a child in the sixties dreams could be held through TV
With Disney, and Cronkite, and Martin Luther Oh, I believed, I believed . . . I BELIEVED
Now, I am the backseat driver from America
I am not at the wheel of control
I am guilty, I am war, . . . I am the root of all evil Lord, and I can't drive on the left side of the road

(repeat chorus)
