Once in a Very Blue Moon By Patrick Alger (Recorded by Nanci Griffith and

once by Dolly Parton)

I found your letter in my mailbox today

You were just checking if I was okay

And if I miss you, well, you know what they say

It's just Once in a Very Blue Moon

Just once in a very blue moon

Just once in a very blue moon

And I feel one coming on soon

No need to tell me you'd like to be friends

And help me get back on my feet again

And if I miss you, well, it's just now and then

Just once in a very blue moon

It's just once in a very blue moon

Just once in a very blue moon

And I feel one coming on soon

(Bridge)

There's a blue moon

Shining

When I am reminded of all we've been through

Such a blue moon

Shining

Does it ever shine down on you

You act as if it never hurt you at all

Like I'm the only one whose getting up from a fall

Don't you remember, can't you recall

Just once in a very blue moon

It's just once in a very blue moon

Just once in a very blue moon

And I feel one coming on soon

Just Once in very Blue Moon

(Note to the readers: When you have to full moons in one month, the second one is called the Blue Moon
