Seems like another wasted day.
Sometimes I think I think too much.
Or my heart just seems to run away
I thought of you, i thought of you
FUCK THE WHOLE WORLD
I just want to sit and cry tonite in the arms that make me happy.
I never thought a smile could my life, what a pretty girl
on such a
Cloudy day.
And i don't care about anything.
Every night I make a wish that i'll see you tomorrow.
Sugar.
Never tasted anything so sweet.
Never felt something so beautiful.
This ugly world needs more beauty like yours.
My star.
My love.
