Couldn't sleep well these days
Everything you did, you told me
Didn't say a thing as I picked up my bag
And secretly walked away

I was seeing the end
I was feelin' a bit strange
Cause the truth about it is that I was torn
Between you and that boy

I won't be back I still love you but
I won't be back any more...
I won't be back still I love you but I know now
I won't be back that boy is waiting for me

Before you told me you lied
I was feelin' down and kind of bad
Cause the truth about it is that I was torn
Between you and that boy

I won't be back I still love you but
I won't be back any more...
I won't be back still I love you but I know now
I won't be back that boy is waiting for me

I know now which way to go
I know now

I won't be back I still love you but
I won't be back any more...
I won't be back still I love you but I know now
I won't be back that boy waits for me
