This ain't fair, but I fear
I traveled here alone 'cause of you

Think I may be daydreamin' baby but I know, I know what I still don't mean to you.

While I try, while I try, while I try, don't start tellin

White lies, you better talk it over

White lies, everywhere I go I'm hearin'

White lies
Tellin' everybody that I love you
Tellin' everybody that I love you.

Ramble on, stars set and gone
And I feel like I've been broken inside
Tell me I'm wrong pretty lady
But the strong part of me keep on by your side

While I try (come and listen baby), while I try (don't be mean), while I try, don't start tellin

White lies, everywhere I go I'm hearin'
White lies

Tellin' everybody that I love you
Tellin' everybody that I love you.
