She looked so pretty pity perfect stranger
Sold connections for the buy in major
Lobby fucking with the bird board turf board
Need a license to observe and I swear they'd never lie
Just shows how much that

She goes, she goes, she goes
Round, round, round, she goes, she goes

Ugly race day and a rain face loser
Printing money on parole beats loser
Your hands stuck in your pocket
Digress confess you offered
But you burnt the house down
Just like the movies

She goes, she goes, she goes
Round, round, round
She goes, she goes, yeah

Pretty past did you forget my story
Lost a kitten on the road to glory
I know I could have been there
But I wasn't so it doesn't matter
Patch me another line, we'll laugh about it

He knows, he knows
He knows nothing now
He knows, he knows
He knows nothing now

Seagulls, seagulls
Seagulls fly around
She knows, she goes, yeah
