would u like another pill for printing up the dollar bills in the end its all the same keep on lookin at the weather vane time controlling not worth knowing with the reasons ending up its easy 2 see that no-one cares and nothings free u don't owe me u can't sell that still controlling in the format

get in a rock show theres another fine reason get in a rock show get in a rock show

when the joker plays another joke the smoker takes another toke stars keep fallin from the sky people watch and don't ask why glasses broken love unspoken
when the other preacher comes and rolls into town your looking up your looking down u don't own me u can't sell that

rock show theres another find re-ejected u don't own me u can sell that

get in the rock show theres another fine reject get in a rock show theres another fine reason its still all the same show for still the same reason
get in a rock show
theres an undefined reason
