Anybody, right now my heart is so heavy
And I cry tears until I'm empty
I feel so alone, don't you hear me say?
I gotta break these chains, I gotta break these chains

[Incomprehensible]

Anybody out there, anybody on the landscape
Any, anybody, am I talkin' to myself?
Body, body, anybody, I need to rationalize
Anybody see the passion in my eyes?

This flip life, sorta stuff I observe
Is often times triflin', throwin' me a curve
Seem a little life been gettin' a little blurred
Lately my wife's been prayin' for me, word

God, know I'm thankful for the blessings I receive
But who wants to give up what they want for what they need
A lotta things are promises, a lot are true indeed
Some of ya'll ain't hearin' me, let me brin' you up to speed

Maybe we'll stop, maybe the album will flop
Maybe we'll cop nice cribs on the way to the top
Maybe we'll stay right here in the jar remainders
Keep believin' with the truth, leadin' a pack to fall

Right now my heart is so heavy
And I cry tears until I'm empty
I feel so alone, don't you hear me say?
I gotta break these chains, I gotta break these chains

[Incomprehensible]

Have you ever felt alone like nobody cares?
And even at home, ain't nobody there?
But somebody's there, but nobody's there
Showin' concern for the issues burnin'

The insecurity and the fear internally

Poor self image with no real identity
Untapped potential, unstable mental Lookin' to escape from the trap you into

So you puffin', puffin' til you see the stars
You cuttin', cuttin' and you hide the scares
You poppin', poppin' til the pills are gone
You drink the last drop til you in the zone

You were [Incomprehensible] for the love complex
Used and abused, bruised and confused
I'm gonna tell the truth ain't no substitute
That's ever gonna fulfill the need inside you

Christ died for that, he left and came back
Flowed the powers, sin and death alike
You can have life and get more abundant
No more questions, cap the wonderin'

Right now my heart is so heavy
And I cry tears until I'm empty
I feel so alone, don't you hear me say?
I gotta break these chains, I gotta break these chains

What you wanna know? Where you tryin' to go?
What you tryin' to see? Where you tryin' to be?
What you wanna know? Where you tryin' to go?
What you tryin' to see? Where you tryin' to be?

Right now my heart is so heavy
And I cry tears until I'm empty
I feel so alone, don't you hear me say?
I gotta break these chains, I gotta break these chains

What you wanna know? Where you tryin' to go?
What you tryin' to see? Where you tryin' to be?
What you wanna know? Where you tryin' to go?
What you tryin' to see? Where you tryin' to be?

Right now my heart is so heavy
And I cry tears until I'm empty
I feel so alone, don't you hear me say?
I gotta break these chains, I gotta break these chains

What you wanna know? Where you tryin' to go?
What you tryin' to see? Where you tryin' to be?
What you wanna know? Where you tryin' to go?
What you tryin' to see? Where you tryin' to be?
