"Don't Ask"

It's a call, I fell into your arms that night, don't ask It's the time we had apart to sort things out, just don't ask It's the work, you say you're doing, but baby I don't even ask
It's the love, that came undone between us, but nobody ever asks

Nobody ever asksâ€¦

There's a place and time for everything I know, don't ask
But when I'm around you still I lose control, just don't ask You suggest the struggle goes both ways, but baby I don't even ask
I just wish you'd have a little faith, but I'm learning not to ask

But I'm learning not to askâ€¦
