Our haven on the southern point is calling us
Our haven on the southern point is calling us

And faced with all the obvious she'll carry us Avert your eyes from all of this, we'll make it all back
In the end you'll never find
You'll never find me now
But I'll return to you
When you return to me

In regards to the last word
It's the last you'll hear
I'd never find any other
I could ever
I could ever
Never say it's the last one
It's not the last one
I'd never find any other
I could ever
I could ever
