Everyone makes mistakes sometimes
It's life, I can't change that
But what you did was so cruel
Not an underestimated fact
You lied to me for 5 whole years
You said I was the only one
And you took away my fears

It's life, oh life
You told me love was all that
And the strangest thing about it was
I believed all that crap
The way I felt about you boy
Wasn't written in words
I have no proof
You can't change that
But I loved, loved you
Yes I loved, loved you
I have no proof
You can't change that
But I loved, loved you

Now everyone wants a piece of me
Because they think I'm vulnerable
But I'll show them, show all of you
I can change, change it all
Now everyone thinks I'm so alone
Having lost you, my boy
But now it's just all the same
Can't treat me like this no more

So stop (stop) what you're doing
And think (think) of all the lies
And stop (stop) what you're sayin
Think twice

It's life, oh life
You told me love was all that
And the strangest thing about it was
I believed all that crap
The way I felt about you boy

Wasn't written in words
It's life, oh life
You told me love was all that
And the strangest thing about it was
I believed all that crap
The way I felt about you boy
Wasn't written in words
I have no proof
You can't change that
But I loved, loved you
Yes I loved, loved you
I have no proof

Everyone makes mistakes sometimes
(I loved, loved you)
Doesn't matter if you know wrong or right
(I loved, loved you)
Yes I loved, loved you
