While the music is coming to an end
I fell for you and the love pretend
You know, I smelled the truth
But tonight my instinct
I left the city, my family, my precinct

And I'm looking at liberty, good belief
Revolution, new obsession
Ideas, like new years
And good things are growing wings
With hope and dope and charity

I ain't being disarmed like this
I don't seek your foolish kiss
This is feeling victory
And I won't tell you what I see
No more, no more

Don't think, [Incomprehensible]
You've got to trust in someone
Drop your guard and make love
Don't play your cards to your heart now
Don't play your cards to your heart now

Stop, yell, make a noise that's for all of us
Don't think revenge is a path to happiness
For the real link to enlightenment is forgiveness
For under the sun we are better and warmer together

I ain't being disarmed like this
I don't seek your foolish kiss
This is feeling victory
And I won't tell you what I see
No more, no more

Don't think, [Incomprehensible]
You've got to trust in someone
Drop your guard and make love
Don't play your cards to your heart now
Don't play your cards to your heart now

Let's stop breath in

Let the oceans wave
Let the trees rise up
Let all my love come pay
Drive away

I'll be a by stander
That enters the mind
Out of a nightmare
Back into my heart

All of the reds, shot forth
Go ahead, make love, love

Revolution, new obsession
Ideas, new years
Good things are growing wings
Hope, dope, charity

Don't play your cards to your heart now
