My emotions fly, away
There's a voice, to fly
You are mine

From the rooftops there's a voice that fills my head
again
You're the reason I am waiting
Let the feelings overtake, beware I'm falling
It'll be my life that you're saving

My emotions fly, away
There's a voice, away
You are mine

again
You're the reason I am waiting
Let the feelings overtake, beware I'm falling
It'll be my life that you're saving

From the rooftops there's a voice that fills my head
again
You're the reason I am waiting
Let the feelings overtake, beware I'm falling
It'll be my life that you're saving
