Verse 1

I'm loving living every single day but sometimes I feel so....

I hope to find a little peace of mind and I just want to know.

Brigde:

And who can heal those tiny broken hearts, and what are we to be.

Where is home on the milkyway of stars, I dry my eyes
again.

Refrain:

In my dreams I'm not so far away from home,
What am I in a world so far away from home,
All my life all the time so far away from home,
Without you I'll be so far away from home.

Verse 2

If we could make it through the darkest night we'd have a brighter day.

the world I see beyond your pretty eyes, makes me want to stay.

Brigde:

And who can heal those tiny broken hearts, and what are we to be.

Where is home on the milkyway of stars, I dry my eyes
again.

Refrain:

In my dreams I'm not so far away from home,
What am I in a world so far away from home,
All my life all the time so far away from home,
Without you I'll be so far away from home.

Verse 3

I count on you, no matter what they say, cause love can find it's time.

I hope to be a part of you again, baby let us shine.

Brigde:

And who can heal those tiny broken hearts, and what are we to be.

Where is home on the milkyway of stars, I dry my eyes
again.

Refrain:

In my dreams I'm not so far away from home,
What am I in a world so far away from home,
All my life all the time so far away from home,
Without you I'll be so far away from home.
