Song name is in fact 'Far away from home'.

Im loving living every single day but sometimes I feel so I hope to find a little peace of mind and I just want to know

chorus

and who can hear those tiny broken hearts and what are we to be where is home on the milkyway of stars I dry my eyes again
in my dreams I'm not so far away from home what am I in a world so far away from home all my life, all the time so far away from home without you I will be so far away from home if we could make it through the darkest night we have a brighter day (we have a brighter day) the world I see beyond your pretty eyes makes me want to stay (you make me wanna stay)

where is home on the milkyway of stars
I dry my eyes again
what am I in a world so far away from home

I count on you no matter what they say cause love can't find it's time I hope to be a part of you again baby let us try

and what are we to be (what are we to be) where is home on the milkyway of stars (milkyway of stars)
I dry my eyes again (dry my eyes) in my dreams I'm not so far away from home (far away from home)
what am I in a world so far away from home (far away) all my life, all the time so far away from home (far away from home)
without you I will be so far away from home

what am I in a world so far away from home
all my life, all the time so far away from home
