(harmonizing)

I have givin' up on You Cause you have made it clear You couldn't give a damn weather i was far i was near But do you heard i gotta man and suddenly your here
The challenges must turn you on Cause I know you ain't sincere What we had is over even tho I thought we'd last But somehow you just think that you can hold on to the past
You hated that I'm doin fine without you in my life
But I bet you'd never guessed that I'd be someone else's Wife

Then you see me but you love me then you leave me
played your games
Yea you had your fun
Boy believe me
If you think I still need you Boy you're wrong
Cause you're not the 1 No (you're not the 1)

Lately in the mirror on the nights you decide to call You're tellin me you want me back and that I am your all Ever since we parted those 3 little words you refused to say
Are said to me so sweetly almost every single day
There's no use in lying cause I really love my man There's no use in tryin cause I can see right thru your plan
It's time that you move on and make yourself a brand new start
But I wouldn't be surprised if next time someone breaks your heart

played your games
Yea you had your fun
Boy believe me
If you think I still need you Boy you're wrong
Cause you're not the 1, No (you're not the 1)

(scatting)

There's no use in lying cause I really love my man
There's no use in tryin I can see right thru your plan
Its time that you move on and make yourself a brand
new start
But I wouldn't be surprised if next time someone
breaks your heart

played your games
Yea you had your fun (ooh you had your fun)
Boy believe me
If you think I still need you Boy you're wrong
Cause you're not the 1, No (you're not the 1)
played your games
Yea you had your fun
Boy believe me
If you think I still need you Boy you're wrong (You're not the 1)
played your games
(played with me , no no no no)
Boy believe me
If you think I still need you Boy you're wrong
Cause you are not the 1
(you are not the one boy you are not tha 1)
played your games
Yea you had your fun
