I'm lookin' in the mirror wondering what is wrong with me
and normal is a million miles away I look at my reflection kinda likin' what I see
and normal is a million miles away

We'll never fit in
I know it
the record will probably show it the contest is over
let's throw it

we'll go the way we go and just let other people know

I'm feelin' like a creature in a black lagoon
and normal is a million miles away I'm feelin' like a critter howlin' at the moon
and normal is a million miles away

We'll never fit in
I know it
the record will probably show it
the contest is over

let's throw it

and where we go we'll never know

I'm drowning in my feelings like I'm in a whirlpool
and normal is a million miles away but suddenly I'm down the street and everything is cool
and normal is a million miles away

We'll never fit in
I know it
the record will probably show it
the contest is over
let's throw it
