The sky is my father
He teach me takes care of me
Feeds my questioning
I must take care of him

The earth is my mother
She raise me and nourish me
Leave it to another
To brake a mother's love

And when we can
We warm each other's cold hands
Inside the lands where
We are one
Melting sin
We are one
Shedding of skin
There's no end to our might
With time
We will unite

The mind is my brother
Says he knows what's right for me
Beyond my questioning
I must take care of him
The heart is my sister
She don't know wrong from right
Gotta take care of her

And when we can
We warm each other's cold hands
Inside the lands where
We are one
Melting sin
We are one
Shedding of skin
There's no end to our might
With time
We will unite

This jam for our grandads
Hear what's become of us

Friends lost in shock
Shock'em back
Laughing now
Bring 'em back
We can bring 'em back
Bring 'em back
We can bring 'em
Bring on the whole gang
