Crossed my heart that I wouldn't die
But heaven knows that she's like a drug
Lost in a labyrinth for weeks on end
I lived and I learned from my mistakes
I never did them again

Got a feeling in my stomach and it just won't quit
As subtle as a shotgun and it's daring me to blink
'Cause I'm staring at the devil and would you believe it
He's a lot more familiar than I care to admit

If only I could focus
Maybe if I could see
And if I didn't know any better
I would say you look just like me

The roof is crashing down
The walls are caving in
We've discovered all your stories
Weren't just works of fiction
The roof is crashing down
The truth is spilling out

Oh shit, I've done it again
I'm way too far in over my head
Oh, I've quoted the line, no, so many times
And I don't even know what it stands for

Oh shit, I've done it again
I'm way too far in over my head
Oh, I've quoted the line, no, so many times
And I don't even know what it stands for

Home sweet hole
Don't be careful what you wish for
Home sweet hole
Don't be careful what you say

Home sweet hole
Don't be careful what you wish for
Home sweet hole
Don't be careful what you say

Got a feeling in my stomach that just won't quit
As subtle as a shotgun that tells me to shoot
Bite your tongue, just bite your tongue
You've already said quite enough

The roof is crashing down
The walls are caving in
We discover all your stories
Are just works of fiction
The roof is crashing down
The truth is spilling out

Oh shit, I've done it again
I'm way too far in over my head
Oh, I've quoted the line, no, so many times
And I don't even know what it stands for

Oh shit, I've done it again
I'm way too far in over my head
Oh, I've quoted the line, no, so many times
And I don't even know what it stands for

You wear your life like a noose around your neck
So kick the chair, we're ready to be done with it
You wear your life like a noose around your neck
So kick the chair, I'll kick the chair

You wear your life like a noose around your neck
So kick the chair, we're ready to be done with it
You wear your life like a noose around your neck
So kick the chair, so kick the chair

Home sweet hole
Don't be careful what you wish for
Home sweet hole
Don't be careful what you say

Home sweet hole
Don't be careful what you wish for
Home sweet hole
Don't be careful what you say
