We stare at broken clocks, the hands don't turn anymore
The days turn into nights, empty hearts and empty places
The day you lost him, I slowly lost you too
For when he died, he took a part of you

No time for farewells, no chances for goodbyes
No explanations, no fucking reasons why I watched it eat you up, pieces fallen on the floor
We stare at broken clocks, the hands don't turn
anymore

If only sorrow could build a staircase, our tears could show the way
I would climb my way to Heaven, and bring him back home again
Don't give up hope my friend, this is not the end

We stare at broken clocks, the hands don't turn
anymore
The days turn into nights, empty hearts and empty
places
The day you lost him, I slowly lost you too
For when he died, he took a part of you

Death is only a chapter
So let's rip out the pages of yesterday Death is only a horizon
And I'm ready for my sun...
I'm ready for my sun to...
I'm ready for my sun...
I'm ready for my sun to set

This is suicide season!

If only sorrow could build a staircase, our tears could
show the way
We would climb our way to Heaven, and bring him
home again
If only sorrow could build a staircase, our tears could
show the way

We would climb our way to Heaven, and bring him
home again

If only sorrow could build a staircase, our tears could
show the way

We would climb our way to Heaven, and bring him
home again

We would do anything to bring him back to you

We would do anything to end what you're going through

If only sorrow could build a staircase, our tears could
show the way

I would climb my way to Heaven, and bring him home again

I would do anything to bring him back to you

Because if you got him back, I would get back the friend that I once knew
