(feat. IJahman)

Shake off those warrior garments
Shake off your warrior armor yeah
Shake off those warrior garments
Shake off your warrior armor yeah

Money for your souls
What if they were to tell the young one
All of them dancing upon the moon let them be so, so, so
Let them become Lord

Is it night time again? (man it can't be so)
Is it night time again no can't be Lord
Well it's night time again, oh are you

Sleeping Bag-o-wire
Sleep in a bag o wire, oh Lord
Sleeping Bag-o-wire

Man their armies grow strong, they grow strong
And the young they are well, well, well
All of them use to be so free and so clean hearted unto you and me

But they were caught in a inversion like a dutty soul, man de were lost in all direction!

Sleeping Bag-o-Wire
Sleep in a bag o wire
Sleeping Bag-o-Wire

It can't be no dutty soul
It can't be no dutty soul
Can't be no dutty soul
Man it can't be no, no, no, no!

Well it's night time again
Look it's night time again can't be so
Man it's night time again, or are you

Sleeping Bag-o-wire
Sleep in a bag of wire
Sleeping Bag-o-wire

Shake off your warrior garments
Shake off those warrior armor yeah
Shake off your warrior garments
Shake of those warrior armor yeah

Listen all you who can see Loving Jah always
I man just a chanting for your crisis
Playing music for no prizes

Man it's night time again sleep well my friend
It's night time a sleep, sleep, sleep
Look it's night time again oh are you

Sleeping Bag-o-wire
Sleep in a bag of wire
Sleeping Bag-o-wire
