There were times when my fear controlled me
And your grace was so far from reach
When the walls of the world were closing all around me
For my god you have shown your mercy through my good and my darkest days
So whom shall I fear if you are for me Jesus
But here I stand unbroken
Here with an open heart
And in your hands I give you all of me
Forgiven with a brand new start
Let your spirit reign over me
I'm down on my knees
I'm giving you everything
I know I'll never be forsaken
Never forsaken but patiently waiting Hating the times that my flesh is chasing the stench of death
While I'm facing the fork on the road Complacent and knowing that my decision determines my soul's position
And place in this final destination
But I fear nothing
Unmovable
Statue of my faith is firmly placed in your crucible
And heated by the trials of life
I'm not forgotten
I remain the focus of your thoughts
And Jesus you ain't stopping
No!
But here I stand unbroken
Here with an open heart
And in your hands I give you all of me
Forgiven with a brand new start
Let your spirit reign over me
I'm down on my knees
I'm giving you everything
I know I'll never be forsaken
No you've never given up on me
Through the storm you're leading me
And just when I can't stand
You come and take me as I am
Lord, you're never far away

Let your power reign over me
With you I'm not afraid
But here I stand unbroken
Here with an open heart
And in your hands I give you all of me
Forgiven with a brand new start
Let your spirit reign over me
I'm down on my knees
I'm giving you everything
I know I'll never be forsaken
