And I dedicate this champagne to you tonight
It ain't no special occasion
We gonna drink until it's our drug tonight
'Cause you deserve a standing ovation

And I just want to
Pour it all over you
Pour it all over you, girl

Yeah, turn the lights off, yeah, if it's cool
And baby it's whoever 'cause it's always just you
You got that energy, tell me what we gonna do
In this club with all this liquor, in my vibe, so let me stick
She's so fine and I'm just bruised
Two or three chains and cocoa chips
Let's go, take off, go in, I'm lost.
More than champagne, rose, I'm just sayin'
And if we go ball'a , money ain't a thing
Imma pull this all out and do it again, yeah
Drinks offer, toasts, high store, high boss.
Swag, she loose, get low, me too
More shots, more shots, no touster, just rock Feel that? Roll up! Smoke out, so good.
And she's like a pimp I use, I broken down, she's like this

And I dedicate this champagne to you tonight
It ain't no special occasion
We gonna drink until it's our drug tonight
'Cause you deserve a standing ovation

And I just want to
Pour it all over you
Pour it all over you, girl

Turn the lights on We're asking my waitress not to bring me nothing but aces
My logo, my bracelet and my pockets filled with faces I'm loco, no basics, hand on my dogs I came with

Got straight up, no chase her, around the corner I smoke a late whus
One hundred ones, do it over, come, carry on, pour it one
No occasion, I just wanna blow it on her and end this life
So don't blame me if you ain't right
And don't be tryin' to ruin my night
Let's go, hop off, don't hate, be sure.

And I think it's about time to get this girl
Exactly where I want her
'cuz I don't need no friend
The Lord knows I want her

And I dedicate this champagne to you tonight
It ain't no special occasion
We gonna drink until it's our drug tonight
'Cause you deserve a standing ovation

And I just want to
Pour it all over you
Pour it all over you, girl.
