"By The Hook"

It's been creeping around your yard
Now it's underneath your bed
It's tall dark and cold
And it grabs you by your head

It drags your through the bushes
To a place unknown by all
Hangs you on a hook
Your skin begins to crawl

You've been screaming all the night
You've been screaming all the day
You're hanging by the hook
You can't get away
Blood's in your hair
And it's running down your leg
It pools up on the floor
But you're not dead

Screaming - no you're not dreaming - you're bleeding
Bleeding - no you're not dreaming - you're screaming
