

The Accüsed "Take My Time"

Take my time
Don't reason with me
I don't know fucking how
Just try to own me
Divide my brain with your mental plows
Attacked since birth
Today I've broken out
Life should be unchained
A pleasure without doubt
Keep material wealth
I'd rather have mental health
Life's too short for power
It won't be strong in the zero hour
I take my time
Can't you fucking see?
Take my time
It doesn't me
Take my time
You want me to be
Your double?
Take my time
You're in for fucking trouble
