Summer forgive me it was just the other day
The look on your face was a thousand miles away
It's nearly midnight and I'm talking to your back
I love you way too much to just give up like that

You know I'm never what I say, what I say
You're disappointed but it has to be that way
I'm gonna wait until it's only you and I
And if I get caught I'll deny, deny, deny

Breathe in the night
You can call me anything you like
Stupid but true
I'd still do anything for you

Summer forgive me I'll become the person I was meant to be
There's no one here but you and I
Summer forgive me I refuse to become just a memory
We're gonna make it out alive

I'm always rushing and I'd never settle down
Always inventing different ways to let you down
I couldn't face you when you're looking out into
And when it all goes wrong I'll blame it all on you

Breathe in the night
You can call me anything you like
Stupid but true
I'd still do anything for you

Summer forgive me I'll become the person I was meant
to be
There's no one here but you and I
Summer forgive me I refuse to become just a memory
We're gonna make it out alive

I'll always be that answer that you didn't need
I'll always be that child tugging at your sleeve
I'll be on every photo that you tear in half
I'll always be that joke that used to make you laugh

Summer forgive me it was just the other day
The look on your face was a thousand miles away
It's after midnight and I'm looking at your back
I love you way too much to just give up like that

Summer forgive me I'll become the person I was meant
to be
There's no one here but you and I
Summer forgive me I refuse to become just a memory
We're gonna make it out alive
