You came so subtly
And i never thought you'd have your claws in me
I can't remember when you first appeared
But i know i never really wanted you here
The situations changed
My mind has been deranged
With my thoughts my curiosity would not let me erase
I'm getting weaker now
My flesh is giving in
I've got to give this fight to Christ
If i expect to win

(chorus)
My heart cries out to you God
Your face is all i want to see
My spirit's willing but my flish is weak
I need your help

In my sleep, i wake

Why are you haunting me?
These lustful thoughts are making me
Who i don't want to be
Although my flesh is weak, the Spirit is alive in me
Through Christ, i can resist you
And in Jesus name, you have to leave

(chorus)

Create in me a pure heart
Make my spirit right with you again
Hear my cry and heal me from my sin
The situation's changed
My mind's been rearranged
With thoughts of Jesus Christ
All other thoughts have been erased
Cause i'd rather see God's face
Than this world's pornography
