

Gs Megaphone "Save Me"

Welcome to my mind. Â Excuse the mess I've made inside.
I picked it up along the way. Â It's way too much to try to hide.

Without you, I'm dirty. Â I'm sick and so unworthy.
Renew me and free me. Â Help me to fly.

You have opened up my soul,

And everything inside is screaming.
I am falling on my knees. Â I'm crying out for you to save me.

I'm getting up and falling down.
I spend my time face to the ground.
Everyday it's just the same - betraying you without a sound.
