Stop, look and listen
Take it all in
Things you've been doing
Have gotten under your skin

Down on your knees
The phone calls for you
Too many mornings
You're not pulling through

Don't throw away your time

Someday you're gonna fly
To the edge of the world
You just have to believe
You can still get through

Beg, steal, or borrow
Your time's running out
A fight that's worth fighting
When your future's in doubt

Don't throw away your time

Someday you're gonna fly
To the edge of the world
You just have to believe
You can still get through

I believe,
You can still get through
