Simulate the nerve cut in the base and it hurts are you afraid when they start to remove the tooth?
I feel the direction not the perfection of the youth. nothing to choose, nobody chooses blocked up in their eyes innocent innocent girl you do it in a favor for the blood just hoping for common in nothing circulation my fascination of the crimetype crime, time, crying from the right have you lost the most forth of a intelligent prevention someone is there, just someone lives behind from his rear of the true love affair love is a thing you will need on a sunday, run away,
run across this to get provision foreplay hey, wait!
what's the name of the game?
what game?
who's to blame?

My first true love affair
Please never go away
My first true love affair
Please never break my heart You've got a hold on me
It will take me back to start Stay with me, set me free

I get twisted, I'm gonna fight a fuck in some storm surround rocks some of my emotion natural devotion, breathing emotion with a body of a madman turning to my bend if you can and let you whiz the wisp of ever bring me down over cause in the winters sex of crime, love and shrine you are the man of the dream in the time trusting the love like a roler making sure this love is pure and nothing but a schooler hey fool

and your thought drops to believe the right to share with you the last song we've got convoy canoes how to be a boy, how to be a girl how to be everyone with the same love remark, the same lover's dark soul to roam alone.

you,
you're fooled,
