It's a long life
A long life you have to live
For only short time
Exit will let you leave
Are you dancin'?
Dancin' all alone
With assassins
Who stab you down

I know how to defend
When you're in my head
I know that storm is growing
I know how to hate everything
But soon or later will win

Won't you take off
Take off the plastic mouth
You scare us to death
And more than that
Are you sharing
Sharing the blood of your veins
To marry the world and it's pain

I know how to defend
When you're in my head
I know that storm is growing
I know how to hate everything
But soon or later will win

We're climbing
On our faith
We are crying

With pink sour plastic mouth
Climbing
On our faith
We are crying
With pink sour plastic mouth

It's a long long life
A long life you have to live
For only short time

Exit will let you leave
Are you dancin'?
Dancin' all alone
With assassins
Who stab you down

I know how to defend
When you're in my head
I know that storm is growing
I know how to hate everything
But soon or later will win

We're climbing
On our faith
We are crying
With pink sour plastic mouth
Climbing
On our faith
We are crying
With pink sour plastic mouth
