One look in the mirror
If I looked like you I would smother
I don't know anything else so nasty
So smutty and so handicapped
Just one sick thought of your empty head

Looking like a fish, smell like a fish
I love you
NOT
Talking like a fish, walking like a fish
A dick like a female fish
That is nota

What did you say?
I couldn't understand
I still respect your face
You look like you wanted to say
I'm ok, it's not my problem if you're down
But, if you don't remember
I can tell it to you again

Who left me?

YOU
Who assure me a peaceful world?
YOU
And who is walking on a thin line?
...YOU!!!

Looking like a fish...

If anybody ask me
Where is my husband
I will say he is away
And he is free of sins

Do you know where you are?
Let's say: Hell is hot
