

Guardian "Turnaround"

Visit "Turnaround" on MotoLyrics.com

Jenny's sixteen, she was feeling down; living on the edge in a dead end town; everybody's talking, saying she', gonna fall. Daddy left home when Jenn was five; Mamma's broke down, is she dead or alive. When it all adds up, she's got nothing at all
You gotta Turnaround, you know Love won't let you down. I wanna tell you, now, I know a Love that won't let you down Now she's eighteen, gonna leave it behind; heading for the city, got the lights in her eyes; gonna make it happen. She's playin' to win, livin' high wire wuth the happenin' crowd. For a while she was happy, now it's bringin' her down No matter where you, go, you know it's all the same.

CHORUS:

You gotta Turnaround, you know Love won't let you down. I wanna tell you now, I know a Love that won't let you down. You gotta Turnaround, you know Love won't let you down. I wanna tell you, now, you gotta Turnaround, Turnaround

You lie awake and you remember the Love you felt so long ago; the Voice that spoke to you when you, were younger. The Love of God won't let you go, I want you to know

CHORUS

John 10:28 / Psalm 107

Visit Guardian page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

