Seemed so far away
Don't know what I missed
You're my scattered skies
Think of home I miss

I see your face in the distance
Envision you at night
Miles of the tears and pain
It sometimes a lonely game

Rising sun, brightest star
Round the world, I love her
The end of time, for you girl
I'm comin'

My love's with you always, oh yeah
Long way from home

My love's with you even
When I'm miles away
I left a kiss in your hand
Just hold it tight and pray

Rising sun, brightest star
'Round the world, I love her
The end of time, for you girl
I'm comin'

My love's with you always, oh yeah
Long way from home
Just call me, just call me again
Long way from home

My love's with you always, oh yeah
Long way from home
Just call me, just call again
Long way from home

My love's with you always, oh yeah
Long way from home
Just call me, just call me
Long way from home

My love's with you always, oh yeah
Long way from home
Just call me, call me again
Long way from home

My love's with you always
Long way from home
Long way from home
Long way from home
