[Intro:]

We're getting higher than we ever been Yeah, sky high
Stunner, what it is?
Rich game, yeah!

Thinking fiending on, New York state of mind
I'm forever in it and forever on my grind
And I'm good, fuck what they're doing I'm good
Wish a nigga would, bad rap on, blowin up my phone
Now we ain't in love we just kept sleeping alone
She said she love my voice, I said, 'I love your dome'
She said, 'you're such an asshole!', I said, 'you should have known'
I'm am uptown nigga til the day I'm dead gone
Smoking that major strong, call it razor'
Say hello to the bad guy, Shawty I be mad fly
That's that 1990 slain, you'. call it swag huh?
I gotta rebuild my game from OGs
You be surprised where a couple grams a coke could lead
She said I smoke too much
Hoe please, I still get the job done' high Come, chief!

And them clouds boy, putting it down boy

Open the doors we shining when we show up
Big money shit flossing makes the doors up
Them hoes up and 'em bottles up

I live a great life, I don't know where to begin
That's just might make up in the morning go and buy a
Benz
Last night was a blur, I think I fucked some twins
I know I had a scratch' I'mma start a trend
I got a bitch so bad I know she a 10
But I'm a heartbreaker choose I don't recommend
And every time she with him she thinking of me
She live a driving free meat at least twice a week
I don't love you girl, I love convertibles
But I can't lie your sex is incredible!
...guess you'll be scared of me
Cause the way you put it down is a miracle (wow)
I pull up in the cartels unbelievable
To put some rounds on this shit it's unconceivable Got your girlfriend asking where my top at Canary yellow diamonds where my watch at.
